APPA Retired Membership Application

Retired membership is available to individuals who have retired as a member in good standing. Those eligible may have retired as institutional representatives, as Associate members, as Affiliate members, or as Business Partners. The applicant cannot be currently engaged or soliciting business from APPA members or seeking future business solicitations. The applicant would be expected to make an application for Retired Status through the APPA office. The APPA membership year runs from April 1st through March 31st.

* The completion of this application is required. Retired membership costs $50 annually at this time, but is subject to change based upon the cost of providing services and approval by APPA's Board of Directors. Regional membership cost is $0.

Benefits you will receive as an Retired Member:

- A subscription to Facilities Manager magazine
- A subscription to Inside APPA, APPA's bi-weekly e-newsletter
- Access to the Membership Directory & Resource Guide
- Full member access to APPA's website (www.appa.org)
- Member discounts on APPA publications and on registration fees to attend APPA's Professional Development Programs

Qualification Requirements:

The Association bylaws (Article III-Section B-Number 9) provide for the qualification requirements:

- Retirement from the facilities management profession
- Verification of retirement from the organization or business
- Cannot be currently engaged or soliciting business from APPA members or seeking future business solicitations
- Serve as a volunteer within the region
